
The phases run in order, but a phase may be re-entered when testing or a review finds something wrong. Seven such passes were made over the system between 20 August and 10 October 2026.